

Summer Events at the Whately Public Library

Ice Cream Social – Saturday, July 24 at 1:00pm. All ages welcome to cool off with some ice cream. Bring your friends and neighbors.

Book Discussion Group meets the 4th Monday of each month at 6:30pm. July 26th we will discuss The Great Gatsby. August 23rd will be a discussion of the novel Loving Frank. Copies of the book are available at the library each month. All are welcome.

Lou's Upcycles Hands-on Craft Workshop – Wednesday, July 28, 2-5pm

Make an upcycled wallet to hold your stuff from un-recyclable plastic wrappers. The plastic bags are transformed into fabric using heat and pressure.

Ages 8 – adult. Please call to register. Funded by the Whately Cultural Council.

Friends of the Library Meeting – Monday, August 2, 6pm

The Friends of the Library meet the first Monday of each month to support activities within the library. Join us as we prepare for the Annual Fall Book Sale in September.

Book Donations Needed – Please donate books and movies in good condition to the library for our annual Book Sale. All proceeds will fund special events for children and adults throughout the year. No textbooks or magazines please.

Earth Celebrations - Campfire with Storyteller, Rona Leventhal

Wednesday, August 11, 5:30pm

Join us for a magical evening around a real campfire – with stories, songs and marshmallows, of course! Recommended for ages 5+. Funded by the Whately Cultural Council.

Movie Times – Monday, August 16, 2pm

AVATAR, PG-13, 2010

Director/screenwriter/producer James Cameron brings his science fiction roots to DVD with the award-winning film, "Avatar." The almost three-hour epic is considered by many as the most beautiful movie ever produced thanks to its groundbreaking graphics technology. Set in the far future, Jake Sully travels to Pandora, a lush, jungle-covered extraterrestrial moon and home to a humanoid race, the Na'vi. The 10-foot tall, blue-skinned Na'vi fight when a human corporation attempts to remove the indigenous people from their native lands.

Pajama Story Time – Wednesday, August 25th at 6:30pm

Join us for a special story time with Robin Foley reading stories about trees and Native Americans. Wear your pajamas to the library!

Craft Table – Drop in anytime for earth friendly craft projects all summer.

Whately Library Book Bags – Go Green with our new eco-friendly book bags, available for $10 at the library. All proceeds benefit the Friends of the Library. Celebrate the library's 60th Anniversary with our bright green cotton bags, made with 85% recycled cotton fabric, and printed with the library's name and image.
