

September at the Whately Library

Edible Wild Plants of the Northeast

Tues 9/4, 6:30pm. Presentation and discussion. Perennials for edible landscaping and attracting birds, butterflies, and other beneficials will be offered for sale.

Social Catalysts Foundation: Weaving Program

Presentation, Demo & Sale

Tues, 9/18, 6:30pm. This Massachusetts non-profit that creates employment opportunities for individuals with disabilities will talk about their weaving program and how they make products out of hand-woven recycled videotape. There will be a weaving demo and products available for sale.

Gut Microbiome Book Talk

with Local Author Ana Maria Moise

Sat 9/22, 1-2pm. Join author and licensed nutritionist Ana Maria Moise, MS, CNS, LDN to learn how the modern diet is changing gut microbes and what we can do to feed these beneficial organisms to restore the gut and optimize health.

“Story Stones” - Kids Craft & Story-Building Workshop

Sat 9/29, 10am-12pm. AGES 7-11. Join local author of award-winning book, Show Me a Story, in making decoupaged stones which are the perfect foundation for developing elaborate characters and stories, and can be used again and again to tell a diverse range of stories. PLEASE BRING SOME STONES.

Annual Friends of the Whately Library Book & Tag Sale

Sun 9/30, 10am-2pm. As part of the Annual Whately Fall Festival, the Friends of the Whately Library will hold its book and tag sale. Please contact Library Director Candace Bradbury-Carlin at 665-2170 if interested in participating in tag sale. Each 10' x 10' space is $10. Each seller should bring their own blanket, table, and/or chairs. ALSO LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS TO HELP SETUP AND CLEANUP – please call the library.